

Greetings friends of Zion Christian School:

This year, Zion is producing Daisy Pulls It Off, a comedy by Denise Deegan, as its spring play. The performances will be March 7-9, 2019.

Daisy Pulls It Off tells the story of Daisy Meredith, the “new girl” and first ever scholarship student at the elite and exclusive Grangewood School for Girls. After arriving at Grangewood, Daisy becomes fast friends with zany classmate Trixie Martin and the two of them get caught up in a series of irresistible adventures. However, some of the privileged students look down on Daisy's poor background and are determined to get her expelled from the school. Through sheer pluck and cleverness, Daisy must overcome her obstacles. Not only must she win over her classmates and help achieve victory in the big field hockey match, but also, she needs to find a hidden treasure to save Grangewood from impending closure! Can she pull all of that off? You'll have to join us at Zion's spring play to find out!

The students in the cast are already hard at work in rehearsals. They are showing great promise as they memorize their lines and explore the characters and themes of the play.
